

Contents

Table of illustrations / v

Preface / vii

Foreword / ix

PART ONE

INNOVATION AND TRANSFORMATION

IN THE HEALTHCARE SECTOR / 1

Chapter 1 - Development of eHealth: could reverse innovation help overcome the issue of medical deserts? / 3

Chapter 2 - How has digital technology transformed traditional medicine and improved patient care? / 27

Chapter 3 - Teleconsultations: an alternative option for the healthcare sector in France? / 49

Chapter 4 - Does digitalisation change the relationship between patients and their caregivers? / 67

Chapter 5 - Insurers dealing with Insurtech in health care / 91

Chapter 6 - The dilemma of public hospital governance / 117

Chapter 7 - Potential and limits of restructuring multidisciplinary care to treat chronic diseases / 145

PART TWO

HEALTH AND THE WORLD OF WORK / 171

Chapter 8 - Are small and medium enterprise owners-managers at risk? / 173

Chapter 9 - The importance of health in companies / 187

Chapter 10 - The legal side of managing health at work / 201

Chapter 11 - Salutogenesis in the workplace / 225

Chapter 12 - Using sophrology to tackle burnout / 247

Bibliography and webography / 263

Author biographies / 285

Index / 293